

soldiers from the Navajo, Sioux, Comanche and Meskwaki tribes, along with members of 14 other tribes, served as code talkers in some of the most dangerous operations in both theaters of World War II.

Today I introduce the Code Talkers Recognition Act to honor those who were overlooked when medals were awarded to the Navajo code talkers in 2001. This bill authorizes the presentation of commemorative medals on behalf of Congress to Native Americans who served as code talkers during any foreign conflict in which the United States was involved during the 20th century. I ask my colleagues to help honor the heroic contributions of these gentlemen by cosponsoring and passing this legislation.

PASSING OF CONGRESSMAN PETER RODINO JR.

Mr. CORZINE. Mr. President, I want to take a moment to acknowledge the passing of Congressman Peter Rodino.

We have lost a great man, a great New Jerseyan, and a great American.

I had the most profound respect for Congressman Rodino's wisdom, fairness, honesty and sense of justice. He emerged a leader during one of the most difficult times in our Nation's history and he was more than equal to the task.

Congressman Rodino was born in Newark, NJ. The son of Italian immigrants, he rose to prominence from humble origins, working his way through law school and attending classes at night to earn his degree.

During World War II, he served his country with distinction, earning a Bronze Star. He returned a captain after having been promoted in the field.

Upon his return, he sought public office. He was elected to the House of Representatives in 1948 and would serve in the House for 40 years. And during those years, Congressman Rodino earned the respect of his colleagues and the loyalty of his constituents. He sponsored the Civil Rights Act of 1966 and authored its fair employment practices amendment; he played an integral part in the drafting of numerous pieces of civil rights legislation. We can also thank him for sponsoring the bill making Columbus Day a holiday.

Many, however, remember Congressman Rodino most for his role in Watergate as chairman of the Judiciary Committee.

During Watergate, a tumultuous period for our country, we needed a touchstone for honesty, fairness, and bipartisanship. Congressman Rodino was that touchstone. Tip O'Neill said of his fellow representative: "He's enhanced the stature of Congress when we were at a low ebb." He earned the trust and respect of his fellow Democrats and Republicans.

He was a public servant in the truest sense of the phrase. We all can only hope to serve as he would and to represent our constituents with equal honor and grace.

My heartfelt sympathies go out to his family and friends. We all mourn his passing.
